Developmental Disabilities Community

Virtual Town Hall

Do you have a developmental disability or support someone who does?

Do you have questions and concerns about what is happening with COVID-19?

Are you looking for resources or just want to connect with others who understand what you are going through?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, and you live in Washington State, please join the Developmental Disabilities Council, The Arc of Washington State, and the Developmental Disabilities Administration for a virtual town hall to talk about the impact of the COVID-19 (coronavirus) outbreak on the developmental disabilities community, and what is being done to meet the needs of people across the state.

What to Expect:

- Important updates from DDA (central office and regional DDA staff will participate).
- Resources and ideas.
- A chance to ask questions and share concerns.

Who is Invited:

The meetings are open to the public, including (but not limited to): individuals with developmental disabilities (including those who do not receive DDA services), parents and other family members, and professionals.

Dates and Times:

There is one meeting scheduled for each DDA region. Choose to attend whichever works best for your schedule. Each meeting will be recorded and shared afterward.

- Tuesday, April 7th, 10:00-11:30am (DDA Region 1)
- Thursday, April 9th, 10:00-11:30am (DDA Region 2)
- Thursday, April 9th, 4:00-5:30pm (DDA Region 3)
